COMMENTS – HEALTH DEPARTMENT PERSONNEL:

Jeff Grayzel inquired to the status of 180 Speedwell Avenue. He stated he noticed the front door to the house was open and was concerned that anyone or anything could enter the home. Kevin stated he and Albert Mastrobattista, Building Inspector, went to the home today and closed the door. Kevin also stated the POD on the property was unlocked. Mr. Mills stated that the State of New Jersey has taken over this case regarding the selling of the property. Since the home is owned by mother and son, the monies are needed to continue to take care of the mother in a nursing home. No further action will be taken by the township at this time.

The subject of the dog ordinance will be tabled until the September 16, 2009 meeting.
