

Morris Township Historic Preservation Commission Minutes, October 30, 2018 at 7:30 pm

Call to Order: Carol called the meeting to order at 7:30 pm.

Attendance: Carol Barkin, Jean Rich, Sarah Harris, Erich Huhn, Craig Goss, Sue Young

Minutes: Minutes from July 31, 2018 were read and approved, no changes made.

Old Business:

The Abbey: still in the works, nothing public yet.

Puff's Tavern: The owner has painted the building.

Prudenttown signs: Ready to be put up.

New Business:

Royal Farms: residents are resisting adding another gas station and convenience store to the area. The Chinese restaurant would be torn down.

New Jersey HP Tax incentives: Article by John Reitmeyer, in the NJ Spotlight, Oct. 19, 2018 giving information as to how to apply for and receive a tax credit for up to 25% of the cost of a qualified project for people who want to restore and rehabilitate an historic property.

HP course: Ray Chang and the office of the Morris County Historic Preservation will be giving a training course Monday, Nov. 5th, 7-8:30pm at the Cultural Center 300 Mendham Road, Morris Twp. so that people who might want to apply for a grant will be ready to learn more at the January 2019 session.

Other issues: Erich showed us a copy of the cover for his new forthcoming book about the Masons in Morristown.

2019 Meeting Dates: All will be the last Tuesday of the month with the exception of December.

Next meeting, November 27th at 7:30pm

Mtg. adjourned at 8:30pm

Respectfully submitted,

Sue Young, Recording Secretary
